SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Acts 5:27-31, 40b-41

Rev 5: 11-14 John 21:1-19

REFLECTING ON THE SCRIPTURES

According to today's gospel Peter and the others fished all night but caught nothing. When they followed the instruction of Jesus however, they brought in a full net's worth. Traditional scriptural exegesis sees in this fishing expedition a metaphor for the church's missionary activity. By ourselves we can accomplish nothing, but evangelization undertaken, guided by the Holy Spirit is fruitful. Reflect on your own life. How do you evangelize...bear witness to Jesus? Do the words you speak, the life you live, the emails you send draw others to Jesus? Are others drawn to the joy and peace and wholeness of your life so that you may introduce them to the Risen Lord, the reason for your joy?

LIVING THE GOSPEL

If the early disciples of Jesus had circled the wagons, they would have remained a small, insignificant sect. Instead they reached out, under the inspiration of the Spirit, unafraid to encounter the world beyond their small community and bear witness to Jesus.
